

of the Table

the potluck we talked about how our relationships with our church developed. We needed to answer as a church was, "What does it mean to make the table about those who have been committed to the church in the long years."

them about commitment and what it meant for them to be a member of a church. I heard stories of when they paid off the $300,000 to build the sanctuary. I heard stories of everyone pitching in to help. I heard stories of when they would go to the store to get a new recipe to come to the rescue. I heard stories of when they would go to the store to get a new recipe to come to the rescue. I heard stories of when they would go to the store to get a new recipe to come to the rescue.

of the Table." This was incredibly profound, because as Disciples of Christ, we are called to be a People of the Table. But unlike the Catholic Church we don't see the table as an altar, but as a table.

za and take it home for dinner. While we were there we saw Gordon and several pizzas in the middle of the table and everyone was sharing and said hi and then we went on our way, but when I think of coming around a table sharing the bread from the middle of the table, laughing and talking, it's a beautiful memory.

ns to be a People of the Table. It means that we sacrifice and serve one another. Men and women who have gone before us. To make the commitment of baptism we hold on tight to one another and call on the one who knows
